Austin Healey
3000

A close-up photograph of a teal-colored car body panel. The central focus is a chrome emblem with the words "Austin Healey" in a cursive script above the number "3000" in a stylized, outlined font. A chrome lightning bolt graphic extends from the right side of the "3000". To the right of the emblem, two circular taillights are visible, and a chrome bumper cap is partially seen at the bottom.
